

Project on Research in Medical Education (PRIME)

Wednesday, March 28, 2007

8 - 9:30 a.m.

Sanger Hall, Room 1-038

(continental breakfast provided)

Presentations Accepted for the 2007 Southern Group on Educational Affairs Meeting
Louisville, Kentucky

Does the MCAT Writing Sample Predict Excellence: A Two School Study

Dennis Hoban, James Messmer, VCU School of Medicine

Carol Elam, Kim Scott, University of Kentucky College of Medicine

Establishing a Student Tutoring Program

Angela Payne-Wetzel, James Messmer, VCU School of Medicine

Meeting ED-2 with an On-line Clinical Skills Passport for M-3 Students

Anita Navarro, Chris Stephens, Elizabeth Waterhouse, VCU School of Medicine

Addition of Team Based Learning to the Preclinical Medical School Curriculum

Diane M. Biskobing, William Grogan, and Kathy Kreutzer, VCU School of Medicine

Development and Evaluation of a Simulated Exercise in Central Line Placement (CLP) for M3 Students

Sonya Lawson, Elizabeth Waterhouse, Brenda Seago, Paul Mazmanian, and Curt Sessler, VCU School of Medicine

Student Evaluation of Teachers in 1:1 Student:Preceptor Pairs: Can it Be Both Candid and Useful?

Rita Willett, Indra Kancitis, Sonya Lawson, VCU School of Medicine