

School of Medicine
Professional Development Seminar

You are invited to attend a seminar on . . .

Emerging Trends in Academic Medicine

Wednesday, April 24, 2013

12 - 1:30 p.m.

Molecular Medicine Research Bldg., Room 1011

Dr. Teresa Carter

Dr. Pamela Dillon

12-12:45 p.m. Introducing the Teaching in Medical Education (TiME) Faculty Fellows Program in the School of Medicine

Presenter: Teresa Carter, EdD, Associate Dean for Professional Instruction and Faculty Development

By the end of this session, attendees will:

- recognize three goals of the TiME program to develop leaders and scholars in medical education;
- consider the potential benefits of earning a 12-credit Graduate Certificate in Medical Education for professional development;
- review the application process for courses that begin in summer and fall 2013.

12:45-1:30 p.m. The Center for Clinical and Translational Research

Presenter: Pamela Dillon, PharmD, Research Liaison, Center for Clinical and Translational Research

As a result of this presentation, you will be able to:

- describe the educational programs available through the Center for Clinical and Translational Research;
- understand the goals of clinical and translational education programs;
- recognize the value of education/training in clinical and translational science.

Lite lunch provided with RSVP by Monday, April 22 at <https://redcap.vcu.edu/rc/surveys/?s=zEDyqw> or dstewart@vcu.edu or 8-6591. For questions, please contact dstewart@vcu.edu.

VCU

VIRGINIA COMMONWEALTH UNIVERSITY

This seminar is sponsored by the Women in Science, Dentistry, and Medicine Faculty Organization in collaboration with the Office of Faculty Affairs, School of Medicine, VCU Medical Center.